

Planning and Project Controls

Various Roles

About the role

Project Planning, Cost Engineering and Project Controls roles are part of Anvelo's Project Controls division. Anvelo provides its services to numerous clients in a variety of construction sectors across Australia offering our people opportunities to be involved in a variety of complex and iconic projects.

Key responsibilities include:

- Project schedule development and compliance checks.
- Work breakdown structure development.
- Cost breakdown structure development.
- Earned value management.
- Baseline management and status updates.
- WBS structuring and management.
- Time-chainage diagrams for linear projects.
- Design, procurement and construction scheduling.
- Systems and commissioning scheduling.
- Progress monitoring and reporting.
- Key performance indicators reporting.
- Management dashboard reporting.

Experience and skills needed:

- Relevant formal qualifications in engineering, construction or management.
- High level communication skills, both written and verbal.
- Construction industry experience preferably in the transport infrastructure and/or heavy construction sectors.
- Project controls experience.
- People leadership experience is desirable.
- Chartered credentials (preferred).