

Delay & Disruption Analyst / Project Planning Professional, Brisbane

About the role

The role/s support the delivery of our project controls and expert advisory services. These roles are a key part of the growth and ongoing success of Anvelo, as well as contributing to the success of the overall business.

Key responsibilities include:

Key responsibilities include:

- Provide exceptional project controls and planning services to clients.
- Assist the Expert witness.
- Assist leading and managing a profitable business unit.
- Grow team capability and performance.
- Carry out fact-finding exercises to determine clarity of events.
- Carry out delay and disruption analysis using the methods described in the relevant Protocol.
- Assist in the drafting of Delay and Disruption expert matter reports.

Experience and skills needed:

- Strong problem-solving skills in the disciplines of commercial, project management or project controls.
- Relevant formal qualifications in Engineering, Construction and/or Quantity Surveying.
- Strong and relevant experience in an Expert Witness assistant or claims submission capacity.
- Expert project planning and scheduling experience with P6 and MSP.
- Strong people and leadership ability.
- Strong market reputation in delay and disruption matters.
- Extensive experience with EOT claims, delay and disruption preferably in the transport infrastructure and/or heavy construction sectors.
- Proven experience in delay and disruption technique implementation.
- Project controls experience is desirable.